DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(e) the invention was described in (1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent or (2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effects for purposes of this subsection of an application filed in the United States only if the international application designated the United States and was published under Article 21(2) of such treaty in the English language.

Claims 1-9 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by Blinn et al.'373 (Blinn). Blinn discloses a method and system of on-line shopping (figures 1-16) comprising a commerce provider server 100 connected to a network (via 108), a first terminal 102 connected to the network (via 110 and 108) and a second terminal 106, provided in the store and connected to the network (via 104, 108), the second terminal capable of transmitting a client number/shopper identifier to the commerce provider as well as selected/ordered goods information to and from the commerce provider and ultimately back to the first terminal (via order table, as seen in figure 9). Further, Blinn discloses the use of stored memory (via 130) as well as inventory control 124, order processing 126 and page generation/printing 120.
